GENERAL PROGRAMS - The Organization's primary program is training young architects by providing architectural services for local and global missions organizations. In 2016, we provided services including master planning, commercial, institutional and residential architecture, and interior design to over a dozen organizational building projects worldwide. Lectures, small groups and one-on-one mentoring focused on faith and vocation. The studio culminated with the design and construction of a series of Information Kiosks for the town of Lakeside, Montana.
