Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

CAL has had a profound impact in the wounded veteran community and now has served thousands of veterans and approved caregivers through fitness programs nationwide. CAL empowers post 9/11 combat wounded veterans to regain and maintain their physical and mental health by providing granted yearly gym memberships, fitness programs or in-home gym equipment anywhere in the United States. Not only are CAL veterans losing weight and moving away from obesity, but are also eliminating the need for a number of prescription medications. Positive reintegration within the family occurs and quote after quote states, "Catch A Lift has saved my life. Our program is in such demand that CAL receives over 100 applications each month. Through responses and data from CAL members, veterans are finding their "new-self" and a purpose again in life, citing, "I'm motivated to be healthy again. Depression, anxiety and the "feeling alone and dark" is radically reduced through their fitness regiments. The MAPS Program (Mentor, Accountability, and Peer Support) is an invaluable tracking program which supports our veterans to ensure success for each CAL member. Once a veteran receives his or her grant, they are provided access to our Squad Leader Program where they are led by a civilian or military volunteer who helps keep them accountable and motivated throughout the year. Within these groups each veteran sets fitness goals, addresses obstacles, overcomes isolation, motivates and heals together. Results have been profoundly overwhelming. Comradery, support, and intervention PRIOR to a veteran going dark, along with giving each service member the opportunity to heal vet to vet, soldier to soldier is not only changing lives, but also saving lives. For veterans with a high level of motivation, we also offer a Self-Assess Program in which veterans track their own goals and report back to CAL Headquarters. In addition, CAL veterans that express an interest in the fitness industry can become a certified personal trainer or nutritionist through a grant CAL provides to successful candidates, within the Education Program. CAL veterans agree to give back to their fellow veterans within our program, therefore, each veterans individual injuries or fitness goals can be addressed veteran to veteran. This empowerment sets a new ideal for a sense of purpose, a new mission and a healthier mental and physical outcome for life. As we target solutions for isolation and non-communication within the veteran population, many of our successful CAL veterans mentor other new CAL members by coaching, supporting and reaching out to veterans. CAL's Vet Outreach Program is invaluable as veterans, as well as staff and volunteers, assure no vet is left behind by daily, if not weekly, touch points through phone, emails, motivational text messages and milestone remembrances, such as birthdays, child birth, job successes, etc. Catch A Lift has expanded from its original fitness program to the much needed critical support as mentioned, so our veterans' healing continues throughout their lives for a healthy future.
