Part X, Line 2:

The Organization recognizes the financial statement benefit of a tax position only after determining that the relevant tax authority would more likely than not sustain the position following an audit. For tax positions meeting the more likely-than-not threshold, the amount recognized in the financial statements is the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the relevant taxing authority. As of December 31, 2016 and 2015, the Organization has no tax positions for which the statute of limitations remains open which do not meet the more likely-than-not threshold. Open tax years include 2015, 2014, and 2013.

Part XI, Line 2d and Part XII, Line 2d:

Elimination of revenue from Donor Advised Funds to other funds held by InterAct for Change.

Part III Question 4d: $3,000 revenue represents financial services revenue.

Part VI: Section A: Questions 6, 7a and 7b: InterAct for Change is a wholly owned subsidiary of Interact for Health ("IA4H") formerly known as The Health Foundation of Greater Cincinnati. IA4H is the Sole Member of InterAct for Change. O'dell Moreno Owens, MD, the President and CEO of IA4H, was elected by the Board of Directors of IA4H to serve as the representative of the Sole Member (IA4H).

Part VI: Section B: Question 11b: Prior to filing, the Form 990 was approved by the Operations and Audit Committee, then received by the full Board of Directors.

Part VI: Section B: Question 12c: On an annual basis, a copy of the conflict of interest policy is provided to each Director and Officer of the organization, along with a conflict of interest questionnaire. The questionnaire is completed and signed by each Director and Officer. A summary is then compiled and distributed to the Board on an annual basis. A similar process is also conducted at the associate level on an annual basis. Conflicts of interest are disclosed in the processing of all grants and transactions. Directors, Officers and associates with conflict of interest are excluded from the decision making process. Board members are required to disclose conflicts of interest at the beginning of all Board and Committee meetings.

Part VI: Section B: Question 15a: President and CEO: InterAct for Change did not compensate its President and CEO ("President"). Rather the President's compensation was established and paid by InterAct's parent organization Interact for Health, ("IA4H"). The 2016 compensation for the President was established in late 2015 by the independent members of the parent organization's Executive Committee. The Executive Committee retained an independent compensation consultant to advise it concerning the reasonableness and effectiveness of the President's total compensation. The independent compensation consultant met with the Executive Committee when it established the President's compensation. The President was not present when the Executive Committee discussed and established his compensation. In establishing the President's compensation, factors reviewed by the Executive Committee included: (i) a Board evaluation of the President's individual individual performance; (ii) the performance of the parent organization; (iii) the President's length of service, credentials and experience; (iv) the elements of the President's total compensation and his salary history; (v) the parent organization's compensation targets and raise pool; compensation consultant. After considering these factors, the Committee established the President's 2016 compensation. In acting to establish the President's compensation, the Executive Committee determined the President's total compensation to be reasonable and in the parent organization's best interest and for its benefit. At the next meeting of the parent organization's full board, the Executive Committee reported, in an executive session that did not include the President, the compensation of the President and the basis for the Executive Committee's compensation decisions. The Executive Committee contemporaneously documented in minutes its deliberations concerning the President's compensation. A similar process was followed when the former President retired and a new President was hired in October 2016.

Part VI:Section B:Question 15b: VP, System Strategies & Secretary; VP, Community Strategies; VP, Innovation & Learning; VP, Operations & Treasurer: InterAct for Change did not compensate the Officers listed above. Rather, each Officer's compensation was established and paid by InterAct's parent organization Interact for Health, ("IA4H"). The 2016 compensation for the Officers was established in late 2015 by the President with approval of independent members of the parent organization's Executive Committee. The Executive Committee retained an independent compensation consultant to advise it concerning the reasonableness and effectiveness of each Officer's total compensation. The independent compensation consultant met with the Executive Committee when it established the Officers' compensation. The Officers were not present when the Executive Committee discussed and established their compensation. In establishing an Officer's compensation, factors reviewed by the Executive Committee included: (i) a review of the Officer's individual performance by the President; (ii) the performance of the parent organization; (iii) the Officer's length of service, credentials and experience; (iv) compensation recommendations by the President; (v) the elements of each Officer's total compensation and a salary history; (vi) the parent organization's compensation targets and raise pool; and (vii) comparability data, including recommendations prepared by and reviewed with the Executive Committee by the independent compensation consultant. (The parent organization's President is independent of the Officers.) After considering these factors, the Committee established each Officer's 2016 compensation. In acting to establish each Officer's compensation, the Executive Committee determined the Officer's total compensation to be reasonable and in the organization's best interest and for its benefit. At the next meeting of the organization's full Board, the Executive Committee reported, in an executive session that did not include the Officers, the compensation of each Officer and the basis for the Executive Committee's compensation decisions. The Executive Committee contemporaneously documented in minutes its deliberations concerning the Officers' compensation.
