Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Uncertainty in Income Taxes - Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by the Organization in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. The Organization is current on its tax filings which are subject to examination under statutory provisions. The Organization's federal and state income tax returns are subject to possible examination by the taxing authorities until the expiration of the related statutes of limitations for those returns. The Organization's federal returns for the years ended December 31, 2015, 2014, 2013 and 2012 could be subject to examination by federal taxing authorities, generally for three years after they are filed. The Organization's state returns for the years ended December 31, 2015, 2014, 2013, 2012 and 2011 could be subject to examination by state taxing authorities, generally for four years after they are filed.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Each director, officer, or member of a committee with board delegated powers shall annually, and upon assuming office, sign a statement which affirms that such person (a) has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy, (b) has read and understands the policy, (c) has agreed to comply with the policy, and (d) understands that in order to maintain its federal tax exemption this Corporation must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes. The duty to disclose requires that such disclosure shall occur immediately upon the occurrence of an event or transaction which could be an actual or possible conflict of interest, and shall not be delayed until completion of the annual statement. Upon the disclosure of a potential conflict of interest, and all material facts, the following procedures shall apply: (a) The interested person may make a presentation at the board of directors or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement that results in the conflict of interest. (b) The chairperson of the board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. (c) After exercising due diligence, the board or committee shall determine whether this Corporation can obtain a more advantageous transaction or arrangement with reasonable efforts from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. (d) If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably attainable under circumstances that would not give rise to a conflict of interest, the board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in this Corporation's best interest and for its own benefit and whether it is fair and reasonable to this Corporation and shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement in conformity with such determination. In addition, to ensure that this Corporation operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and that it does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its status as an organization exempt from federal income tax, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following inquiries: (a) Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arms length bargaining. (b) Whether partnerships, joint ventures arrangements, and arrangements with management service organizations conform to written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable payments for goods and services, further this Corporation's charitable purposes and do not result in inurement or impermissible private benefit. (c) In conducting the periodic reviews as provided for herein, this Corporation
