4a (Code) (Expenses $ 173,180 including grants of $ 173,180) (Revenue $ 0)

Our major accomplishment is our SUMMER EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM For our 11th year this year we actually added a TEEN WEEK to this year's summer educational program What a learning experience for everyone Maybe a once in a lifetime? This teen week was designed to allow teens who had graduated through our program when they were younger and now on their way to a brighter future To come back and mentor the younger children, to share their experiences and why this program is so important The entire week was full of cultural learning, workshops, leadership classes, and bonding exercises All before they were paired with younger children to mentor during the Edu-Camp sleepover camp on the Big Island Sleepover Camp on big island allowing the children to escape their everyday hardship of living homeless and learning life and social skills to help them succeed This camp allows for the public community to be more involved with sharing their talents and teaching new skills to the homeless children We introduce a wide-variety of activities and venues from art, culture, yoga, reading, theater, music and more We also provide eye and oral exams Our main goal is to help them gain the self-esteem as well as life and social skills to help them succeed in school Adventures Around Day camp is our session on O'ahu and allows the children to explore the wonders of their island They will go on field trips, adventures and learn the basic life and social skills to succeed in school This is our 11th year and we strive to advance with each year The volunteers pick the homeless children up every morning at 7a m get them fed and ready for the day Pair them with their teen mentor and get ready for the field trips across the island Exploration through the zoo, aquarium, discovery zone, and other educational programs The overall goal is to provide them with newfound skills to succeed in school At the end of both camps children and their siblings all receive their new backpacks filled with supplies and new outfits to start their first day of school Our camp is open free of charge to children ages 3-7 and teens enrolled in high school Our camp also helps to provide first to work moms the opportunity not only work alongside their children while gaining training skills but fulfill their needed hours Also working with university students to help them with their practicums This camp is designed to provide ample opportunities to the community to help all sorts of members succeed and meet their goals We typically have 2 interns and 3-5 first to work parents attend our camp

4b (Code) (Expenses $ 78,171 including grants of $ 78,171) (Revenue $ 0)

Holiday Christmas Party/Support This is another backbone of our program which helps to raise the self-esteem and self-worth of the homeless children While Christmas might seem not a necessity in life, it is truly life-changing to hundreds of our homeless children living in extreme poverty Having Santa and his elves actually deliver gifts specifically for that child in need is a life changing experience for these precious children Most of these children have never had a Christmas, a tree, or a hot meal, a family gathering, nothing as we deem normal When Santa brings their hearts desire (which is typically a simple toy or a life need), these children truly feel loved and wanted, cared about other than in their world of abandonment On the Big Island the over 350 homeless children will be invited and brought to a holiday party complete with Santa and his elves, games to win prizes, crafts to make and take as gifts, hot nutritious meal and of course sit on Santa's lap and get a special gift and photo op Children on the island of O'ahu will have their Christmas eve filled with Santa and his elves arrivals all along the water's edge and high in the mountains From sun up to sun down Santa will assure that all the children are cared for This year we found new encampments and over 20 tents popped up along the water's edge in Wai'anae allowing us to provide an additional 120 children to our already long list

4c (Code) (Expenses $ 105,594 including grants of $ 105,594) (Revenue $ 0)

OUTREACH and AWARENESS PROGRAM While this is what makes the difference year round to the children we provide service to, it is basic and simply put Our volunteers conduct outreach throughout the month to various homeless encampments, seek out new homeless families and keep track of those in our program We provide monthly hygiene and food boxes Clothing and life necessities on a scheduled basis As well provide emergency care for those who have either just became homeless or had an issue with their current living situations We provide tents, cook stoves, sleeping bags, pillows, clothing, food, etc for those in need Our primary focus is to provide the immediate of every child we encounter during our outreach We do have a lack of storage so have not been able to have as much supplies on hand as we had hoped for this year As well, we have found so many more homeless encampments popping up across the islands that it is hard to reach them all every month We do not provide emergency outreach during the months of our summer educational program and Christmas due to lack of funding

(Code) (Expenses $ 87,098 including grants of $ 87,098) (Revenue $ 0)

We provide many other activities throughout the year, from Easter events, Halloween workshops, birthday parties and more These are done on a community supported basis Typically we reach out to approx 100 or so children for each activity The total amount for the extra events is below We also participate in outreach events hosted by the county or city to help with the homeless children support Our Easter event is another great community supported program Allows the homeless children to visit with the Easter bunny and receive their Easter baskets filled with wonderful life necessities, school supplies, art supplies, a new outfit and more This year we carried Easter baskets in our cars as we ran into so many homeless children living on the streets displaced from what they once called home due to the clean sweeps our governor put into place That was very emotional Our Halloween costume workshops allows these children to be part of everyday at school, like all the other children and not left out of a parade or a school based event due to the lack of costumes We allow the children to make their own costumes out of recycled materials and slightly used Halloween costumes we have donated throughout the year And we have other great outreach project likes these, just to let the children know we care and are still here for them throughout their journey through their struggles in life Watching the children grow and become self sufficient is our best reward through all these years of outreach

(Code) (Expenses $ 35,140 including grants of $ 35,140) (Revenue $ 0)

Our teen mentoring summer program which started out to be a pilot program has grown to a wonderful successful avenue for teens to escape their cycle of poverty We have seen such a great improvement in these teens lives, both in school and socially We have a few teens graduating high school this year and will be sponsoring that honor These teens are born and raised into poverty and homelessness by parent(s) who have not succeeded or graduated in school, have not held a steady employment and typically just another generation on welfare Our teen mentoring program is designed to break that cycle and give the skills to the teens so they can escape These teens have a long road ahead, and the skills they are taught in this program prepares them for that success

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 8a	We have a monthly board meeting with some of the key people for the upcoming events. We do not need to vote or have board approval for the committee to continue with the actions that were confirmed at this board meeting. For example, the board of directors already pre-approve the Christmas party and holiday giving program. So, that allows the committee and volunteers involved with Christmas to have meetings and approve among themselves without informing the board. Every program we have has a different group of volunteers that work with the committee chair. This allows for our community to make a difference in the community and not have to dedicate their entire life to this program. While our main board of directors and committee leaders are with us year after year, they choose one area that touches their life to volunteer for the season.
