990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule A, Part IV, Section C	The foundation is operated, supervised and controlled by the supported organization of the foundation, Brethren Care Inc (BCI), through common management of both organizations. Management of BCI exercises a substantial degree of direction and influence over the foundation's policies, programs and activities. Other factors that demonstrate BCI's control over the foundation include: -BCI is specifically named as a beneficiary organization in the foundation's articles of incorporation, -pursuant to the foundation's code of regulations, it must consult with BCI prior to the election of any trustee, indicating that BCI has ultimate control over the selection of foundation's trustees. -The foundation's code of regulations require the foundation meet with the trustees of BCI, or a BCI committee, at least annually for the purpose of reviewing the foundation's investment policies and the timing and amounts of distribution to be made to BCI, -according to the foundation's articles of incorporation, upon dissolution of the foundation, any remaining assets will be turned over to BCI, -Since the foundation and bci both share "brethren care" in their legal name, this indicates that it has always been the intention of both organizations to have a historic and continuing relationship and to work cooperatively together for the benefit of bci.
