Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b), and any other additional information

The Sisters of Charity Foundation of Cleveland begins its' grant award process by reviewing grant proposals to ensure that Foundation guidelines are met for mission, geographic area, program area, and population served. Required documents from potential grantees include audited financial statements, IRS determination letter, and IRS Form 990. After initial verification has taken place, a program officer/grants manager is assigned to each proposal. Additionally, site visits are conducted with a representative from the organization and a narrative summary is completed for the distribution/grant committee. All proposals are then carefully reviewed by staff as stewards of Foundation funds. Once the selection process is complete, the distribution/grant committee submits its' recommendations to the full board of directors at its' next scheduled meeting. Subsequent to a grant being awarded, grantees are monitored through site visits to ensure proper use of funds. Periodic reports and budgetary information is required and reviewed for consistency and adherence to the program goals and objectives. At the end of the grant period, closed grant/final evaluation reports are completed and reviewed by the program officer/grants manager for compliance with the grant agreement. These evaluations are used as an internal document for future funding requests. Grant files are archived electronically for future reference.
