Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Management of the Organization is required to determine whether a tax position of the Organization is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. Management of the Organization is not aware of any tax positions for which it is reasonably possible that the total amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will significantly change in the next twelve months. However, management's conclusions may be subject to review and adjustment at a later date based on factors including, but not limited to, new tax laws, regulations, and administrative interpretations (including relevant court decisions). The Organization's federal tax returns for the prior three fiscal years remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	An electronic copy of the organization's Form 990 was provided to the board of directors for review before filing. Management, the finance committee, and the board review the 990.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Board members are required to disclose potential interests annually. Whenever there is a possibility of conflict of interest, such concerns are expressed in writing to the Executive Director for response. When such concerns are brought, the executive director or his designee reviews them for resolution and reports to the board of directors.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	On an annual basis the board of directors reviews the compensation of the executive director. The Compensation review includes review of historical data of the Organization, review of compensation data from comparable organizations as obtained from the American Association of Homes and Services for the Aging (AAHSA), the Association of Ohio Philanthropic Homes and Services for the Aging, Lutheran Services in America, and other compensation data obtained directly from various Luther Social Ministry organizations in Ohio. In addition to this review the board has in the past contracted with outside consultants to undertake studies of executive compensation information for presentation to the board. The board's executive committee reviews this information in depth and drafts a recommendation to the full board as to any changes in executive compensation. The full board then determines executive compensation based on this data and recommendation which is documented within the board minutes. There were no salary increases for the Executive Director from 2014 to 2016.
