Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☒1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

To serve the financially-related needs of our diverse membership while maintaining a sound, member-owned association. The credit Union returns the profits to its members in the form of lower loan rates, higher savings rates and free or low cost services. The credit union brings financial services to people who are unable to obtain them elsewhere or as a valuable alternative to the traditions for-profit banking system. The credit union receives deposit from and makes loans to its members primarily located in the Indiana counties of Blackford, Grant, Delaware, Madison and Miami. The majority of its loans are collateralized by specific items, including consumer assets, residential real estate, and member share balances.
