Facts And Circumstances Test

MAGIC solicits support for donations and memberships, and offers other fundraising activities through its website, Facebook accounts and letters/flyers distributed for specific activities. We have a governing Board of Directors. Our services include growth awareness campaigns, quarterly newsletters, financial scholarships for attendance to our annual educational convention, assist with insurance appeals for families denied drug coverage, provide an extensive web site covering educational materials for a multitude of growth disorders, and provide referrals for families needing a specialist for specific growth disorders. We received a congressional resolution for "Growth Awareness Week", every 3rd week of September. We have over 25 educational brochures that are free to newly diagnosed families and doctors offices. Membership is available to anyone and free for those that cannot afford it. Membership is available on our web site and our membership brochure.
