Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☒

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

Elevate Energy's mission is smarter energy use for all. The organization designs and implements programs that lower costs, protect people and the environment, and ensure the benefits of clean and efficient energy use reach those who need them most. Elevate Energy provides economic and environmental benefits to households, building owners, and communities through energy efficiency and conservation and by engaging them in public education efforts to reduce their energy usage. Specifically, Elevate Energy administers residential hourly electricity pricing programs, delivers energy and water retrofits in residential and nonprofit buildings, provides energy planning and data analysis services, and conducts research and makes its results available to the public and governmental agencies to advance knowledge about current energy use and ways that society may benefit through reductions in energy consumption.
