Form 990, Part III, Line 3 - The National Cherry Festival Board of Governors and the Board of Directors of the Festival Foundation have determined that it was advisable and in the best interest of both organizations to increase administrative efficiency, decrease administrative costs and ensure the long term sustainability of the National Cherry Festival that is so vital and important to the people of the Grand Traverse region, that the assets, activities and operations of the National Cherry Festival be transferred to and assumed by the Festival Foundation. On April 1, 2016, the assets, activities and operations of the National Cherry Festival were transferred to and assumed by the Festival Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization (EIN 26-0883148) for consideration of $1 00. On April 1, 2016 all assets excluding a balance of cash and a receivable from the Festival Foundation were transferred to the Festival Foundation. The Board of Directors of the Festival Foundation provides governance over the remaining assets of the National Cherry Festival.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B - Policies, Line 11b - The National Cherry Festival Form 990 and schedules are reviewed initially by the Festival's Executive Director, then by the Finance Officer and the Finance Committee. Upon approval by the Finance Committee, the tax return is available for review by the full Board of Directors. Outside public accounting and legal services are retained to address specific tax issues.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B - Policies, Line 12c - The National Cherry Festival's conflict of interest policy was approved by the Board of Governors. The Executive Director holds primary responsibility for the monitoring of this policy in addition to her role as the conduit between the Board of Governors, volunteers, staff and public. Any and all potential conflicts of interest are directed to her attention.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B - Policies, Line 15 - Compensation of the Executive Director is reviewed annually by the Executive Committee of the Board of Governors. If needed, outside compensation information is obtained by the Committee during the review process. Individual festival employees participate in an annual review conducted by the Executive Director.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - The National Cherry Festival complies with all IRS requirements concerning disclosure of governing documents, board policies and financial information. The public can request this information in person, by mail or telephone contact.
