Other program services - Other program services include Child Care, Teen Education and Leadership and Youth Volunteer programs. Youth development programs give children and teens a safe place to belong, build confidence and learn positive behaviors. Child Care - The YMCA's NAEYC-accredited Early Child Care and After School programs provide a nurturing environment where children can learn, grow and develop social skills. These programs also reinforce the YMCA values of honesty, caring, respect and responsibility among children and their families. An additional element to Y child care programs is the healthy eating physical activity (HEPA) curriculum implemented to help reduce childhood obesity. The Y makes it possible for families of all backgrounds and income levels to participate in our programs on a sliding fee scale. In 2016, 25 families received this financial support. At the Y, we help teens set and achieve their goals. Through Teen Education and Leadership programs, including the Teen After School Program, Youth in Government and Leaders Club, teens ages 11-17 have the opportunity to develop self-confidence and take an active role in strengthening their community. In 2016, over 125 teens participated in these Education and Leadership programs. Youth Volunteer Corps is a service learning program that empowers young people through extended volunteer service experiences. In 2016, 323 youth provided more than 11,000 hours of community service to 30 community agencies.

Name: Ann Arbor YMCA

Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Healthy Living The Ann Arbor YMCA helps improve the health and well being of the Ann Arbor community by bringing families together, fostering connections and encouraging good health through shared fitness, recreational and social activities. As a result, 27,238 individuals in the Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti community received the guidance and resources to achieve health in spirit, mind and body. As our nation struggles with an obesity crisis, families struggle with work/life balance issues and individuals search for personal fulfillment, the resources that the Y provides are increasingly important. Our healthy living programs include Ypsilanti, adult group classes, team sports and recreation, and LIVESTRONG at the YMCA, a free fitness and support program for cancer survivors. The Y has a number of programs designed to fight chronic disease, particularly an evidenced based Diabetes Prevention Program, and is committed to empowering our community to lead fuller lives. Y programs are accessible, affordable and open to all faiths, backgrounds, abilities and income levels. In 2016, the Ann Arbor YMCA provided $732,618 in financial assistance to individuals who would have faced economic barriers to participation.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Youth Development - Camps The YMCA is committed to nurturing the potential of every child and teen. We believe that all children deserve the opportunity to discover who they are and what they can achieve. Our residential camp program, Al-Gon-Quian, and day camp programs in Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and at Camp Birkett in Dexter Township, provide a safe community where young people explore, build self-esteem and interpersonal skills and make lasting friendships and memories. In 2016, the Ann Arbor YMCA gave financial assistance to 376 children to attend summer camp who would not have otherwise had access due to financial constraints.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Youth Development - Swim, Sports and Play Children learn the lifetime value of staying physically fit through active play Year-round youth sports, martial ways, gymnastics, swimming, and outreach programs help young people cultivate the skills, values and relationships that lead to positive behaviors and better health The Ann Arbor YMCA has partnered with a number of other community organizations to identify and respond to community needs YMCA subsidized programs in Ypsilanti, including after school sports and recreation and middle school healthy living programs as well as the free summer Safety Around Water initiatives, are examples of how the Ann Arbor YMCA strengthens community Over 55 volunteers helped deliver these programs to the Ypsilanti community, which involved 735 Ypsilanti youth in 2016

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 4d Description of other program services	(Expenses $ 896,116 including grants of $ 11,000)(Revenue $ 661,448) Other program services - Other program services include Child Care, Teen Education and Leadership and Youth Volunteer programs. Youth development programs give children and teens a safe place to belong, build confidence and learn positive behaviors. Child Care: The YMCA's NAEYC-accredited Early Child Care and After School programs provide a nurturing environment where children can learn, grow and develop social skills. These programs also reinforce the YMCA values of honesty, caring, respect and responsibility among children and their families. An additional element to Y child care programs is the healthy eating physical activity (HEPA) curriculum implemented to help reduce childhood obesity. The Y makes it possible for families of all backgrounds and income levels to participate in our programs on a sliding fee scale. In 2016, 25 families received this financial support. At the Y, we help teens set and achieve their goals. Through Teen Education and Leadership programs, including the Teen After School Program, Youth in Government and Leaders Club, teens ages 11-17 have the opportunity to develop self-confidence and take an active role in strengthening their community. In 2016, over 125 teens participated in these Education and Leadership programs. Youth Volunteer Corps is a service learning program that empowers young people through extended volunteer service experiences. In 2016, 323 youth provided more than 11,000 hours of community service to 30 community agencies.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b Review of form 990 by governing body	A draft of the Form 990 is first reviewed by the Finance Committee, which also has responsibility for all matters related to the Organization's annual audit. Once approved at the Committee level, the form, including all attachments, is emailed to the Board prior to a regularly scheduled board meeting. At the board meeting, the Treasurer, who chairs the Finance Committee, reports on any discussions related to the Form 990 that occurred at its meeting and asks for additional comments or questions from the board members. When all matters have been addressed at the Board level, the return is promptly filed.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy	Board members and officers of the Association are required to review the conflict of interest policy and complete the related questionnaire annually. There are no staff members who qualify as key employees, requiring them to complete the questionnaire. The CFO reviews the responses to the questionnaire, documents potential conflicts and provides a summary report to the Executive Committee of the Board. The Chair of the Board periodically reminds the board members and the officers, who also attend board meetings, of their responsibility to notify a member of the Executive Committee if there is a change in personal or professional relationships that may create a new conflict of interest. In addition, several members of the Executive Committee are also members of the Finance Committee, which provides a further oversight and compliance capability. All significant financial transactions are reviewed and discussed at the committee level, including those involving potential conflicts of interest, before presentation to the Board.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a Process to establish compensation of top management official	The Executive Committee of the Board determines the compensation of the Organization's CEO. The Committee meets annually to review the performance of the CEO and to determine compensation. Each board member is asked to complete a CEO performance appraisal survey. The results of the survey are compiled by the Chair of the Board and reviewed by all members of the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee's overall evaluation of performance is based on categories outlined in the Organization's salary administration plan and pre-agreed -upon annual goals for the CEO. Compensation data is compiled for CEO's of other YMCA's and other non-profits with similar size budgets in the Organization's geographic region. The results are compared to the current CEO pay range established in accordance with the modified Hay Plan charts provided by the YMCA of USA and utilized for all exempt and non-exempt staff positions in the Organization. The salary review process and subsequent adjustment are documented with the signatures of all the members of the Executive Committee, indicating their participation, concurrence and completion date. The final results are reported to the Board at its next regularly scheduled board meeting.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b Process to establish compensation of other employees	The Board has delegated to the CEO the authority to review and determine the compensation of the Organization's officers, which include the VP of Healthy Living and Facilities, VP of Membership and Programs, VP of Social Responsibility and Community Initiatives and the CFO, in accordance with an established salary administration plan based on the modified Hay Plan charts provided by the YMCA of USA and reviewed annually by Human Resources Committee of the Ann Arbor YMCA Board of Directors. The CEO meets individually with each officer in a formal review session to evaluate the progress on pre-agreed-upon annual performance goals and to determine compensation. Salary ranges for each position are determined based on required competencies. Percentage increases are predetermined for various performance categories and applied based on the officer's position in his/her respective salary range. Contemporaneous documentation of the annual review and compensation adjustment is signed by both the CEO and the officer.
