Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The organization's strategy is to reach, save and disciple entire unreached villages with the gospel of Jesus Christ enabling them to become fully self-supporting in two to four years. This is accomplished by using various methods of reaching villages and people for Jesus Christ, medical camps, disaster relief, etc. Then, the organization installs a native pastor to live in a new area, install a new water well, and plant a church. With an installed pastor, the organization can then strengthen the village by providing food, clothing, medical training, educational supplies, literature, tapes, and bibles. After this has been accomplished, the organization then provides a vocational training center to help the village become self-sustaining.
