Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The United Way is a nonprofit organization as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") and is exempt from federal income taxes on related income pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Code. The United Way is also exempt from Wisconsin income taxes on related income. The United Way is required to assess whether it is more likely than not that a tax position will be sustained upon examination of the technical merits of the position assuming the taxing authority has full knowledge of all information. If the tax position does not meet the more likely than not recognition threshold, the benefit of that position is not recognized in the financial statements. The United Way has determined there are no amounts to record as assets or liabilities related to uncertain tax positions.
