Part V	Endowments The board designated endowment funds are designated by the board as endowment funds to ensure the continuing availability of funds for research purposes During 2016, management has determined endowed assets previously treated as permanently restricted endowment funds that were received from the walter schroeder foundation were erroneously classified as permanently restricted As such, those assets have been moved to board designated Additionally, during 2016 the filing organization added three supported organizations who are also beneficiaries of these endowed funds

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Income Taxes Versiti, BloodCenter, Heartland, Michigan, Indiana and the Foundation have all received tax determination letters confirming that the organizations qualify as tax-exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). The Organization follows guidance that clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, including issues relating to financial statement recognition and measurement. This guidance provides that the tax effects from an uncertain tax position can only be recognized in the financial statements if the position is more likely than not to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. The assessment of the tax position is based solely on the technical merits of the position, without regard to the likelihood that the tax position may be challenged. Versiti, BloodCenter, Heartland, Michigan, Indiana and the Foundation are exempt from federal income tax under IRC section 501(c)(3), though they are subject to tax on income unrelated to their exempt purposes, unless that income is otherwise excluded by the IRC. The Organization has processes presently in place to ensure the maintenance of its tax-exempt status, to identify and report unrelated income, to determine its filing and tax obligations in jurisdictions for which it has nexus, and to identify and evaluate other matters that may be considered tax positions. BloodCenter and the Foundation have filed federal and state of Wisconsin income tax returns to report unrelated business income through 2009 and are no longer subject to tax authority examinations for years prior to 2010 under the federal and state statute. Management has determined that there is no unrelated business income to report for BloodCenter or the Foundation for 2010 through 2016, and income tax returns are not required to be filed. Therefore, as the statute of limitations will remain open for returns not filed, tax years 2010 through 2016, will remain open to audit for both federal and state purposes. The Organization has determined that there are no material uncertain tax positions that require recognition or disclosure in the consolidated financial statements. The Organization recognizes, if necessary, interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in the provision for income taxes. There were no interest or penalties related to income taxes that have been accrued or recognized as of and for the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part VI, Section B, Lines 15a and 15b	Compensation Process BloodCenter Research Foundation, Inc (BCRF) has no employees and does not directly compensate its officers, instead BCRF relies on its related entities, Blood Center of Wisconsin, Inc (BCW) and Versiti, Inc (Versiti), to facilitate compensation of BCRF officers. Versiti and its affiliated blood centers greatly value the generous contributions of the individuals and organizations that support our mission within the community we serve. In order to ensure proper stewardship of our charitable resources, Versiti and its affiliates follow a formalized process to confirm that compensation provided to our executive leadership team is fair, reasonable, and not excessive when compared to other executives. This process also helps us ensure that our compensation program supports the retention of experienced, highly-qualified executives who are committed to our mission. The Executive/Compensation Committee of the Versiti Board of Directors, acting in its capacity as the Compensation Committee, sets and monitors the compensation philosophy for Versiti and the related entities that it supports, including BCW. Other than the Versiti President and Chief Executive Officer, the Compensation Committee does not include members of management and is comprised entirely of individuals who do not have a conflict of interest with respect to Versiti compensation arrangements. The Versiti President and Chief Executive Officer recuses her/himself from all discussions and approvals related to her/his compensation. The Versiti Compensation Committee reviews executive compensation arrangements to ensure such arrangements are fair, reasonable, and not excessive when compared to similarly-situated executives. Executive compensation arrangements are reviewed for reasonableness and approved by the Compensation Committee annually in accordance with the Versiti Reasonableness Review Policy. In order to assess the reasonableness of executive compensation arrangements, the Compensation Committee obtains and reviews appropriate comparability data collected by the human resource department and a qualified independent compensation consultant. The Compensation Committee engages a qualified independent compensation consultant annually. The independent consultant performs an analysis of compensation levels at regional and national organizations of comparable size, scope and structure, and provides the Committee with comprehensive data on the availability of similar services within the geographic area, compensation surveys, written offers from similar institutions, and other information relevant to comparability of compensation. The Compensation Committee's review, recommendations and approvals are documented concurrently in the Committee minutes, which are subsequently reviewed and approved by the Compensation Committee as reasonable, accurate and complete. A copy of the Compensation Committee's minutes is also provided to the Versiti Board of Directors. Versiti and BCW.
