Fargo-Moorhead

Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Prevention and Education Public education and the implementation of prevention-based programming are important elements to the overall mission of the Rape and Abuse Crisis Center. Trainings and presentations are available to places of employment or community groups on issues of healthy relationships, domestic violence, sexual assault, sexual harassment, child abuse, or other issues of interpersonal violence. In the area of prevention-based education, numerous presentations and programs are presented to local schools regularly. Programming includes "Red Flag Green Flag" personal safety curriculum, "I Wish the Hitting Would Stop" domestic violence prevention curriculum, and for older students, programming related to healthy relationships and dating violence is available. In 2016, The Rape and Abuse Crisis Center provided 753 presentations reaching 17,044 individuals, 632 presentations reached 14,867 elementary, middle, high school and college students, 95 presentations reached 1,541 community members, and 26 presentations were provided to 636 professionals (law enforcement, nurses, social workers, etc.). Engaging the community in working to prevent domestic and sexual violence is an important part of RACC's work. Sexual Assault Services The Rape and Abuse Crisis Center (RACC) provides crisis intervention, advocacy and counseling to victims of sexual assault and child sexual abuse. Crisis intervention includes staff and volunteers responding to the immediate needs of victims. In 2016, RACC served 1,105 victims of sexual assault, 378 of those victims were children. RACC is a member of the community sexual assault response team (SART). Advocacy services may include assistance to victims during hospital exams, law enforcement investigations, and with obtaining orders for protection. Ongoing counseling services are provided to primary and secondary victims. Advocates provided service to victims of sexual assault at Emergency Centers on 102 occasions in 2016 Domestic Violence Services The Rape and Abuse Crisis Center provides crisis intervention, advocacy and counseling to victims of domestic violence. In 2016, RACC provided services to 1,774 victims of domestic violence including 149 children. Crisis intervention includes staff and volunteers responding to the immediate needs of victims following an incident of violence. Advocacy services may include assistance to victims during hospital exams, law enforcement investigations, and with obtaining Orders for Protection. In 2016, RACC assisted 91 victims in obtaining emergency Orders for Protection. Counseling services are provided to primary and secondary victims following the initial crisis. RACC also works with local law enforcement officials to reach out to victims identified in domestic violence incident reports, in 2016, staff reviewed 1,396 reports and made contact with 920 victims. Victims were provided with information on the criminal justice system, their rights and services available to them. RACC provides emergency financial assistance to victims who need help with food, rent, utilities, transportation, medication, and other necessities. Advocates responded to victims of domestic violence in Emergency Centers on 13 occasions in 2016 CAC Family Advocate Services RACC provides a Family Advocate at the Red River Children's Advocacy Center (RRCAC). The Family Advocate provides assessment, education, emotional support, and information and referral services to non-offending caretakers of children who are undergoing an interview as part of a sexual abuse investigation. Many of the children identified in RACC's sexual assault services are seen at the RRCAC initially. In 2016, there were an additional 86 care takers and 85 children who were seen by RACC's Family Advocate but who were not viewed as a sexual abuse victim after the investigation. Services to children who are Sexually Acting Out (SAO) In 2016, 25 children and 21 parents were served where children were inappropriately sexually acting out and parents were requesting, and received, education and counseling. In addition to providing direct services and education through intervention and prevention programming, RACC participates in many coordinated community response efforts. Often times in a coordinator / chairing role, RACC representatives meet regularly with other community providers / leaders to consider the community's response and prevention of domestic violence and sexual assault. These groups include the Cass County Family Violence Committee, Cass-Clay Elder Abuse Coordinated Community Response Committee, Child Abduction Response Team, Clay County Family Violence Committee, Cross Borders Children's Action Network, Elder Abuse Forensic Network, ND Human Trafficking Task Force Advisory Board, Red River Sexual Assault Response Team, Sexual Abuse Treatment Team Board, South East Human Trafficking Advisory Committee, and South East Human Trafficking Cored Case Review Team.

Part V, Line 4	The Organization's policy is to maintain sufficient financial stability for the operations of the Organization. Interest and dividends, net of investment expense, are to be transferred to the temporarily restricted endowment fund until the Board determines that the funds be used. In establishing this policy, the Organization considered the long-term expected return on its endowments. The Organization's spending policy states that distributions can be made providing that distributions made do not result in the fund decreasing below the Board's designated or the donor's contribution basis, and the corpus of the donor restricted endowment will be maintained in perpetuity. In the case of donor restricted funds, the spending policy, as established, allows for distributions of the income and net appreciation, both realized and unrealized, at a range of 4% to 6% of the fair value of the endowment assets.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Organization is organized as a North Dakota nonprofit corporation and has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3). The Organization is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS. In addition, the Organization is subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to their exempt purpose. The organization has been determined it is not subject to unrelated business income tax and has not filed an Exempt Organization Business Income Return (Form 990T) with the IRS. The Organization believes that it has appropriate support for any tax position taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The Organization would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.
