Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Cancer care Foundation funds in 2016 helped improve customer care, update treatment facilities and expand the services provided. Financial support allows us to pay for pharmaceutical treatments for individuals struggling to afford care they need to get better or manage their pain, provide access to advanced technologies that allow us to treat patients more quickly and more effectively, support facility renovations and purchase new equipment to improve treatment environments so we can provide treatments more comfortably and with less pain and deliver educational programming and materials, as well as cancer screening services, to vulnerable, underserved communities.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Team Member Crisis Fund Foundation funds in 2016 dedicated to the North Memorial Health Team Member Crisis Fund helped provide financial assistance to current team members in good standing. These dollars help team members quickly when serious health conditions, injuries, new or unanticipated medications costs, catastrophic events or other hardships occur that hinder team members from being able to afford the cost of emergent or basic living expenses. The fund is intended to help in a time of need and is not intended to make the incurred loss whole for the individual.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Program, service and operational support for North Memorial Health The foundation dedicates itself to raising money to support the health of the entire community served by North Memorial Health The foundation helps close the gap between the services provided by the health care system and the compensation received from customer payments, insurance and the government Donor support helps improvements that would likely not otherwise be possible, making us a strong, responsive and accessible community resource Donations help improve customer experience, modernize facilities, broaden programs and services, support community partnerships, provide access to specialized medical equipment and new technologies
