Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Missionary Support - Funds are collected monthly for the support of Long-term missionaries, primarily in China this past year. Two missionary couples are currently on sabbatical, however, funds are still collected, which will be used when they return to the field.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Life Gate Program - This program, written by medical doctors, nurses, and public health professionals is being implemented in South Africa, Mozambique, and Peru. Teams are deployed several times per year to strategic areas to present the program intended to train local leaders to go forward to facilitate community change and transformation to improve health conditions and reduce morbidity and mortality. Local leaders have been targeted to lead the LifeGate Program throughout the year (between visits from the LifeGate Teams) for sustaining the project to create a more successful program evaluation. A physician from Norway has chosen to devote her fulltime practice to expand the implementation of the project. Water filters are dispensed in communities where access to potable water remains a challenging task. Medical Missions. Mobile medical clinics are being established in South Africa in 9-12 townships where local missionaries have built relationships over the past 20 years. Leadership training in health promotion and disease prevention will be conducted to raise up trainers who can represent health promotion within the villages. LBIM is providing an apostolic covering/ministry oversight & administrative support for long-term medical missionaries in the field.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Women's Ministry - Life Givers' Outreaches to Women concentrates on retreats, summits, and conferences to strengthen and encourage women to reach their full potential/destiny in all that God has for their lives. Enriching teachings, relationship-building venues are coordinated in several states and in developing countries. At least three events are conducted annually.
