Return Reference	Explanation
Pt I Line 2	The Organization has no formal procedure for monitoring the use of grant/assistance funds. Funds are awarded based on a preliminary review of the need and/or purpose as communicated by the individual or organization making the request. As members of the community, members of the Organization are usually able to observe first hand how the funds are used and if they are used for the requested need/purpose. If possible, the Organization will grant funds to an administrative body, such as the Veterans Administration Hospital, which in turn will use the funds for the intended direct benefit of hospitalized veterans. If another request is made at a subsequent date, the Organization is able to ask pertinent questions as to the benefits realized from the prior grant before another grant is considered.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt VI, Line 11b	Upon completion, Form 990 is presented to the Organization's governing body for review. The governing body reviews Form 990 and the accompanying schedules. Upon agreement and acceptance of Form 990 and the accompanying schedules, an officer signs the return on behalf of the Organization and the return is filed by the applicable due date. If time constraints should not allow for the governing body to review Form 990 and the accompanying schedules before the return due date, an officer will review Form 990 and the accompanying schedules. Upon the officer's agreement and acceptance of Form 990 and the accompanying schedules, the officer signs the return and it is filed by the applicable due date. Form 990 and the accompanying schedules are then presented to the governing body for their review and acceptance. Should the governing body have a difference with any aspect of the return as filed, an amended return would be prepared and filed.

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt VI, Line 15a	The process for determining the compensation of the Organization's CEO includes a review, comparison, approval by the governing body, and substantiation of the deliberation and decision. The Organization's CEO position is currently a non-compensated position. For the compensation of the Organization's CEO, the time requirements, responsibilities, and history/tradition of the position are taken into consideration by the governing body when determining whether the position warrants compensation. Officer positions usually are not compensated. If the position does warrant compensation, the level of pay is established after reviewing the time requirements of the position, comparison to similar positions and the applicable compensation of other exempt organizations, and the review, discussion, and approval of the governing body. The entire process is documented in the contemporaneous minutes of the meeting(s) at which the compensation issue is taken under consideration.
