Part VI - Line 11b - Describe the process used by the organization to review the form 990. - The form 990 is prepared after an internal review of the organization's books and records for the year. The draft form is then sent to the organization's officers for their comments and suggested changes. After completion of that review, the revised form is sent to the Board for review. Questions, comments and changes, if any, are incorporated after discussion with the Board and the preparor to finalize and file the return.

Part VI - Line 15 a&b - Describe the process the organization uses to determine compensation for its Executive Director and key employees. The Board of Directors reviews and determines compensation annually for the Executive Director based on outside advice from an employment specialist that supplies area statistics for equivalent positions. The Executive Director also uses this specialist's data to recommend annual salaries of key employees to the Board of Directors for approval.

Part VI - Line 19 - Describe how the organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public. - The organizations governing documents are available online through the State of North Carolina's online access to corporate records. In addition, the organization's governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements are available upon request by submitting a written request to the organization's address.
