990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 4a	CEL Education Fund supports Citizen Engagement Laboratory and other nonprofits that align with our mission by incubating high-impact, tech-savvy programs, and by making strategic, restricted grants. We focus our work on the following areas: (1) the Powerful Communities Program & Fiscal Sponsorship Program, which supports leaders who have the passion for making change, the knack for bringing people together in action, and the capacity for building effective organizations. Using a combination of coaching and direct services, we help them help their communities achieve near-term impact and build longstanding power. For projects with more focused needs, we offer several models of fiscal sponsorship, giving the funders the confidence they need to make early investments in ideas while providing a ladder of support to give leaders access to robust infrastructure support as their ideas and organizations take shape, (2) the Innovation Program, which recognizes the need to experiment and devolve our social change strategies. As a social change lab, CEL Education Fund's staff and project leads work to identify gaps in their fields, chart new courses, and build and test new tools and tactics, and (3) Collaboration - the groups CEL Education Fund works with recognize that most challenges their communities face are too big to fight alone. CEL Education Fund helps overcome these obstacles by bringing together groups from across the field to share information, identify best practices, test innovations, and work together to win campaigns that could never be won alone. Through collaboration, groups not only gain near-term allies and ideas, but also build long-lasting ties that help them engage more people in deeper ways.
