Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

We provide education, training, and tools to enable charitable organizations and social enterprises to deliver financial services to the poor, making financial inclusion more affordable, accessible, and effective to the 2 billion unbanked in the world.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code: SD) (Expenses $ 527,628.20 including grants of $ _____) (Revenue $ 33,000.00)

Open Source Software Development (SD):

Mifos X is a free and open source financial software developed to build the complete range of financial services required for effective financial inclusion. The reference apps are examples of how to build microcredit and micro-savings applications using Mifos X. In 2016, the core team led ongoing development of the Mifos X software platform and successfully guided the technical contributions from external partners, volunteers, and interns. Collectively the community released multiple new versions of the platform and new mobile and web apps on top of it. New features include the support for share accounts for members, offline access via the browser, variable installments for agricultural loans, and loan rescheduling and provisioning for better risk management. The community also released version 2 of its mobile app for field officers and the initial mobile self-service app for poor clients.

Our team also led the design of a brand new generation 3 architecture which will provide a reference framework to allow a wide range of digital financial service applications for financial inclusion to be built by partners and volunteers.

4b (Code: Comm) (Expenses $ 361,748.87 including grants of $ _____) (Revenue $ 8,346.39)

Community Development (Comm):

The global Mifos community is made up of financial institutions, local technology partners, and volunteers who use, support and develop the software respectively. We provide the tools, framework, governance, and infrastructure for global collaboration and conduct outreach and advocacy to reach new users, recruit new partners, and attract new volunteers. We started 2016 with 186 Mifos installations reaching a total poor client base of 3.6M clients. By the end of 2016, we had 300 Mifos installations reaching more than 6 million clients. We grew this client base by adding new functionality, systematizing our engagement and onboarding of new partners, and conducting outreach to new geographic markets including Latin America and the Caribbean and Myanmar and Indonesia in SE Asia. We grew our partner program to 80 local deployment partners and 25 innovators building solutions to lift people out of poverty. We put in place systematic procedures for onboarding new volunteers and have more than doubled our number of active volunteers. We grew external contributions through continued participation in internship programs like Outreachy targeting female and minority minority developers, Google Summer of Code for collegiate interns, and Google Code-In educating high schoolers on how to contribute to open source projects.

4c (Code: Edu) (Expenses $ 88,074.79 including grants of $ _____) (Revenue $ 8,455.00)

Education (Edu):

In 2016, we launched our Financial Inclusion 2.0 initiative to educate the sector on the fast, low cost mobile delivery of digital financial services to the poor. To promote our mission and recruit volunteers, we attended multiple events within the financial inclusion and open source space. We attended OSCON, LinuxFest, the GSOC Mentors Summit and ApacheCon to attract new volunteers and contributors. To educate the sector on Financial Inclusion 2.0, we attended the World Council of Credit Union Global Conference in Ireland, and spoke at the annual Microcredit Summit in Abu Dhabi, the Global Microfinance Forum in Berlin, the Aclamericas Summit in Uruguay, Encuentro Nacional de Mexico, and a Central Bank event in Ecuador. We also hosted our first TechDays conference for developers, a two day event, in Amsterdam in May. In Latin America, we hosted our inaugural LatAm Partners Summit to share knowledge on the software and deployment process. We continue to enhance our web-based user manual, technical wiki, online question & answer portal, and library of training tutorials. We continued major efforts to translate documentation into Spanish along with publishing a showcase of the innovation built by the community.

a	A person who directly or indirectly controls, either alone or together with persons described in (b) and (c) below, the governing body of a supported organization?
b	A family member of a person described in (a) above?
c	A 35% controlled entity of a person described in (a) or (b) above? If "Yes" to a, b, or c, provide detail in Part VI.

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

		Yes	No
1	Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2	Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

		Yes	No
1	Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

		Yes	No
1	Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (i) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (ii) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (iii) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2	Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3	By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Section E. Type III Functionally Integrated Supporting Organizations

Part 1, Line 2 (monitoring of funds)

Our payments for software development are for contract software development services. We carefully monitor the software development progress on a monthly and quarterly basis. The contractors have specific, written quarterly deliverables. Each month, we assess progress towards the quarterly deliverables and if satisfactory, we make a monthly contract payment. At the end of each quarter we reassess progress and develop new written requirements with specific deliverables.

Part 1, line 3 column (f) (accounting method)

We use cash accounting and these are the actual expenses for the regional for calendar year 2016.
