Part II – Balance Sheets/Other Assets

The Foundation is the owner of a literary project (a biographical account of the life of a physician who escaped Communist Cuba, with a focus upon the subject's journey to reclaim his human dignity and the role of his faith in fueling his resolute determination in the face of threats upon his life, his faith, and his freedom). Given the uncertainties in the publication/literary market, this intellectual property likely has little to no "market value". However, the Foundation has included the fair market value consistent with book value, equivalent to the capitalized costs of the project.
