Deaf Can receives a grant from Alcohol and Drug Abuse Division under Minnesota Department of Human Services to provide sober housing and support services to person who are Deaf and Hard of Hearing and recovering from substance use disorders. The program model aims to help the client maintain stabilization of biological, psychological and social functioning in the community; to promote a positive and healthy lifestyle; and solidify the gains accomplished in treatment. The design of the project is to find safe and sober supportive housing in the community and hire qualified Sober Coaches to provide housing support services to deaf adults 18 years or older who have completed primary treatment from the Minnesota Chemical Dependency Program for Deaf and Hard of Hearing Individuals (MCDPDHII). $126,000 annual fiscal year grant is used for facility, equipment, and staffing costs. Sober Coaches provide instruction covering communication skills, community resource utilization skills, relapse prevention skills, employment skills, health management and basic living skills. Outcome measures reported to the state will focus on housing stability, increased skills or income; and greater self-determination.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

Minnesota Alcohol and Drug Abuse Division allows for their grant funds to be used for client related expenses. The types of approved expenses and guidelines for use are defined in the grant's Request for Proposal (RFP) and contract agreements. The categories are Client Transportation, Client Housing, Client Incentives, Client Emergency Funds.

Deaf Can staff would assess the financial needs of the clients being served and work with the client to access and apply for public assistance funding sources in order to meet their needs.

In the event that there are no public assistance available or if there is not enough money to support the client, the client will make a written request to the business manager. The request must include these details: the amount needed and purpose for the request. The client shall explain attempts to find other solutions and the results before deciding to make the request.

The business manager will follow up with the client and direct service person to verify the facts and then determine the validity and benefit of awarding financial assistance.

Client Transportation includes bus and taxi fares or other modes of transportation. Client Housing includes rent assistance, security deposits, equipment needed for safety of residents.

Client Incentives are used to encourage sobriety and meeting program objectives. Assistance includes food, personal needs, social activities, and gift cards. Gift cards are priced at no more than $20 each and cannot be used for purchasing alcohol, tobacco, or licit or illicit drugs, including energy drinks. Client Emergency Funds are used for clients who are transitioning from temporary living situations or shelters into more permanent housing. That includes personal needs and food supplies, additional furniture for their apartment.
