Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Foundation follows the accounting guidance for uncertainty in income taxes. A tax position initially needs to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more-likely-than-not the position will be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities. The Foundation is a nonprofit corporation classified by the Internal Revenue Service as tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) and as a non-private foundation under Section 509(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Foundation is not liable for income taxes if it operates within the confines of its exempt status, though the Foundation may be responsible for taxes on unrelated business activities. In the event of an examination of the income tax returns, the tax liability of the Foundation could be changed if an adjustment in the tax-exempt purpose or income from unrelated business activities is ultimately determined by the taxing authorities. As of December 31, 2016, the Foundation had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. The Foundation's income tax filings are subject to audit by various taxing authorities. The Foundation is no longer subject to federal and state income tax examinations by taxing authorities for years before 2013. Management continually evaluates expiring statutes of limitation, audits, proposed settlements, changes in tax law, and new authoritative rulings. The Foundation believes their estimates are appropriate based on current facts and circumstances. Interest and penalties assessed by income taxing authorities, if any, are included in interest expense.
