Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	The scope and extent of continuing grants for each partner is dependent on the Organization's relationship, and the cooperation it receives in obtaining reports and information on how their specific program is succeeding in regards to their client focus and original agreement. Each year the Organization reviews the success/failures of its partner programs before they renew their partnership for the following year. Each of the Organization's partners submits budgets for the programs the Organization financially supports. Quarterly written reports from each partner are required. The partner organizations provide regular verbal updates on clients we send to them. We are also in constant communication with our clients and their satisfaction and success in the various programs they are involved in with our grant partners. We are in weekly constant communication with all of our partners. Our partners give us periodically, testimonies of our clients in their program.
