Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 - Uncertain Tax Positions	The Company is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and therefore has made no provision for federal or state income taxes. The Company follows accounting guidance regarding recognition, measurement, presentation, and disclosure of uncertain tax positions in the financial statements. Tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Company's tax returns, including the position that the Company qualifies as a tax exempt entity, are required to be evaluated to determine whether the tax positions are "more-likely-than-not" to be upheld under regulatory review. In January 2013, the Company submitted its application for tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) to the IRS. The Company received favorable determination of its status from the IRS in a letter dated June 26, 2014. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Company, and has concluded that as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, there are no uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Company's income tax returns are subject to review and examination by federal and state taxing authorities. Beginning with the year ended December 31, 2014, the Company is open to audit under the applicable statutes of limitations by the Internal Revenue Service and state taxing authorities. The Company's policy is to recognize any interest and penalties related to tax matters as an expense when paid. No interest or penalties were recorded during 2016 and 2015.
