PART I - QUESTION 20 - Other Changes in Net Assets

Cornerstone Recovery Residences, Inc. sold substantially all of its Operating Assets in a transaction dated November 1, 2016. They were sold to a much larger for-profit company. We are and have been in the process of re-focusing the Charity towards raising funds to help those who need support and financial assistance in primary and secondary treatment for alcoholism and drug addiction and away from the operation of Recovery Residences. As the two primary workers have full-time jobs the process of choosing a new name and logo, getting a new website together and designing a promotional strategy has come slowly. We will be changing the name of the Charity to Sobriety Resource using the proper process with all the needed organizations before the end of 2017. Additionally we have begun designing the decision matrix we will use to determine a qualified candidate and an appropriate level of assistance.
