Leadership Training- The future of the Hungarian-American communities as well as the relationship between the peoples of Hungary and the United States of America will be shaped by new generations of young people. The leadership training programs of the Foundation create and foster enduring academic, professional, cultural, and personal ties between the two countries. The exchange programs enable young Hungarians and Americans to rediscover themselves, gain a better understanding of each other as well as acquire new experiences, professional knowledge, and skills that can be later used to the advantage of their own communities. The leadership-training category includes all those projects and programs that offer internship, scholarship, exchange, and cultural immersion opportunities for talented young Hungarians and Americans.

Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

community building - The Foundation encourages and supports the development of a large, strongly interconnected, and dedicated Hungarian American community with unbreakable bonds to the motherland of Hungary. It funds and operates programs that contribute to the organizing and strengthening of the currently very scattered network of Hungarian American communities and organizations. As the religious organizations and communities are important community strongholds of a diaspora, establishing or supporting programs and projects of the Hungarian churches in the U.S. and joint activities and projects with religious organizations from Hungary are also included in this category.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Culture and Art - The Foundation is committed to foster understanding of the Hungarian culture in the United States. It hosts a wide range of programs that illuminate the unique art and culture of Hungary. The programs in this category are aimed at introducing and popularizing traditional and contemporary Hungarian art and culture among the Hungarian American communities and the wider American audience as well as preserving and protecting the Hungarian cultural legacy in the United States.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Culture and Art - The Foundation is committed to foster understanding of the Hungarian culture in the United States. It hosts a wide range of programs that illuminate the unique art and culture of Hungary. The programs in this category are aimed at introducing and popularizing traditional and contemporary Hungarian art and culture among the Hungarian American communities and the wider American audience as well as preserving and protecting the Hungarian cultural legacy in the United States.

Education and Research- The Foundation's education and research programs target two main goals. On one hand, the Foundation seeks to operate programs aimed at educating Hungarian Americans from the youngest to the oldest about Hungary's culture, history, traditions, as well as the Hungarian language. The largest Hungarian diaspora today lives in the United States. However, as an impact of globalization, the members of this diaspora, especially the younger generations, find it difficult to maintain their sense of Hungarian identity and are constantly losing their roots. The Foundation is committed to help Hungarian Americans rediscover and cherish their heritage. In case of the older generations, the Foundation seeks to launch programs providing means to preserve the values and noble Hungarian heritage of individuals, families and communities. On the other hand, the Foundation also wishes to take an active part in the educational, academic, and professional exchange between Hungary and the United States. Therefore, it funds and operates programs that promote cooperation between educational and research institutions and professionals.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	A Trustee or officer shall disclose a Conflict of Interest (a) prior to voting on or otherwise discharging his duties with respect to any matter involving the conflict which comes before the Board or any committee, (b) prior to entering into any contract or transaction involving the conflict, (c) as soon as possible after the Trustee or officer learns of the conflict, and (d) on the annual disclosure form. The Secretary of the Corporation shall distribute annually to all Trustees, officers and key employees (as identified by the Corporation), a form soliciting the disclosure of all Conflicts of Interest, including specific information concerning the terms of any contract or transaction with the Corporation and whether the process for approval set forth in this policy was used. Such disclosure form may require disclosure of other relationships that may not constitute an actual Conflict of Interest, but which are required to be disclosed in order for the Corporation to comply with its annual reporting requirements. The Executive Committee shall review the disclosure statements and advise the Board of any relevant information that may assist the Board's action with respect to potential Conflicts of Interest.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Board of Trustees must approve in advance the amount of all compensation for officers of the Corporation. Before approving the compensation of an officer, the Board shall determine that the total compensation to be provided by the Corporation to the officer is reasonable in amount in light of the position, responsibility and qualification of the officer for the position held, including the result of an evaluation of the officer's prior performance for the Corporation, if applicable. In making the determination, the Board shall consider total compensation to include the salary and the value of all benefits provided by the Corporation to the individual in payment for services. At the time of the discussion and decision concerning an officer's compensation, the officer should not be present in the meeting. The Board shall obtain and consider appropriate data concerning comparable compensation paid to similar officers in like circumstances.
