Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Supporting families with parenting content via mobile messaging - ParentsTogether uses mobile messaging-based programs to share helpful parenting content in an easily digestible way with families. In 2016, our primary focus was a program called Q4KIDZ, through which we texted free, creative questions to parents. These daily questions helped parents to connect with their children, to reinforce social-emotional growth, and to spark critical thinking. In addition to creative questions, ParentsTogether also shared resources about issues of importance to families, such as food insecurity and family leave, and we encouraged parents bring kids to vote and role-model engagement in our democracy. ParentsTogether is committed to serving diverse families, especially low-income parents and children.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Engaging parents of children ages zero to three to explore programming to support their families - To expand on our work serving children primarily ages 4 to 10 through Q4KIDZ, we undertook a process to better understand the needs of parents of infants and toddlers. We conducted a listening project across the country to understand their aspirations and pain points as parents. We had a special focus on understanding parents' needs around affordable, high-quality child care. Through this process, we began to identify and test new program ideas for parents of young children.
