Open to Public
Inspection

Name of the organization

Eternal Anchor

Employer identification number

47-2222400

Explanation for Part I line 12 and Part IV:

Austin Robinson and Deborah Garcia receive lodging and meals at the organization's headquarters. These amounts are not reported as compensation because they are furnished on business premises, as a condition of employment and for convenience of the organization due to the need for 24 hour care of special needs children at the home facility.

Therefore, these fringe benefits are considered exempt based on IRS Publication 15-B instructions.

Explanation for Part I line 17:

Other Expenses consist of program expenses as described in Part III and some administrative expenses.

Explanation for Part II line 23, 24 and 26:

These lines are reported at $0 because the organization is reporting on a cash basis. The home facility, which is also used as a headquarters is owned by Ancla Eterna, AC, which is Eternal Anchor's corresponding sister organization in Mexico. The only other assets used by programs are a few vehicles along with normal home and office supplies and therapy equipment for working with special needs children.

These assets are all used for programs and are of nominal value.

The organization has no liabilities.

Eternal Anchor

Explanation for Part III:

The mission of Eternal Anchor is to serve special needs children and their families in the San Quintin Valley area of Baja California, Mexico in the name of Jesus. We do this through four main programs:

(1) Home - providing a dedicated home facility with 24 hour care for 3 special needs children under license with DIF (child protective services in Mexico). The home facility is owned by our corresponding sister organization Ancla Eterna, AC which is a Mexican not-for-profit charitable civil association.

(2) School - providing a 4 hour weekday school program for special needs children from community.

Program includes therapy and learning activities in a safe and loving environment.

(3) Love Extended - consists of home visits and therapy equipment to families, and an annual intensive training event for families and workers in community.

(4) Adulthood - a weekly program to support the transition to adulthood for older special needs children and young adults.

Explanation for Part V line 33:

Programs are the same as in 2015, but are marked as "not previously reported" because in 2015 the organization filed a Form 990-N that did not include any of this information.
