Part III, Line 1, continued

The world is changing and geopolitical, economic and demographic changes are impacting the way Christian missions are able to realize such support. Walls are coming back up that may affect the free flow of money and people into countries. Increasing debt may lead to economic downturns, reducing the amount of money available for charitable contributions. The aging segments of the population tend give a higher percentage of their income than younger people.

We believe that new approaches are needed to address these challenges. That's why the Kingdom Missions Fund was created. We are working to create a giving model that will providing perpetual funding to missions — even if giving rates drop in the future. With this funding, we invest in innovative mission projects that are smart, sustainable and scalable. By doing this we are helping to foster new ideas that will allow missions to survive and thrive in a new world.

Over a decade ago, the Kingdom Missions Fund was started by a single investor who obeyed the call of God to invest $50 a month for the sake of the Gospel. Eventually, others caught the vision and contributed as well. Until 2016, those funds were invested as a donor directed fund within the Arkansas Baptist Foundation. In 2015 the Kingdom Missions Fund was granted its own tax-exempt status and in 2016 the fund was transferred to that entity, the subject of this Form 990.

Today, the fund has grown to over $400,000. God is doing great work through the Kingdom Missions Fund. Together with our supporters, we are making an impact for the Kingdom.
