Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Quality and Safety NACHRI sponsors and facilitates a broad set of quality, safety, and cost management cooperatives. These cooperatives range in size from five hospitals to over 80 hospital participants and hundreds of clinicians, all focused on finding best practice solutions to priority problems. The goal is to identify best practice protocols that can then be spread across the larger group and improve children's health on a national basis.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Data Analytics/Performance Improvement The analytics programs help members measure and improve quality and efficiency, inform and support strategies, showcase improvements in children's health care and identify opportunities for further improvement. Collection and analysis of data has supported advocacy for graduate medical education funding, for increasing children's access under Medicaid and CHIP programs and for strengthening reimbursement for children's hospitals. The tools available to members include a suite of data, benchmarking, and quality improvement programs and software. These tools allow users to back internal and policy decision-making efforts with concrete evidence and allow member hospitals nationally to shape how pediatric care is measured for quality and reimbursement.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Education and Programming NACHRI runs one of the nation's largest set of educational programs dedicated to pediatrics. This includes senior executive education and networking events, the Annual Leadership Conference, quality conferences, analytics conferences, and other topic-specific programs for leadership within children's hospitals. These programs and conferences occur in person and via web.

Policy and Advocacy As the voice for children's hospitals and child health, NACHRI acts as its members' "eyes and ears" in Washington, focusing on legislation and regulatory action that directly affect its constituencies. Sensitive public policies are critical to the ability of children's hospitals to care for all children through clinical care, training, research and public health advocacy. As health care policies are debated at the state and federal levels, NACHRI and its member hospitals work with policymakers to ensure children's unique health care needs are not overlooked and that every child has access to high quality, cost-effective primary, preventive and specialty care services tailored to meet their needs.
