Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
PART X, LINE 2 - FIN 48 FOOTNOTE	Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate income tax positions taken and accrue an income tax liability if the organization has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. Management has evaluated the income tax positions taken and concluded that as of December 31, 2016 there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition in the consolidated financial statements. NATCA and NMI are subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions. NATCA's Federal Form 990 for the year ended December 31, 2013 is currently under audit by the Internal Revenue Service, however, NATCA management believes the audit will not result in an imposition of tax, and will have no impact on the financial statements. Management believes both NATCA and NMI are no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2013.
