990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt VI, Line 4	The organization's bylaws were updated. Significant changes include adding to the mission that IHN not only supports Hispanics in local government but also serves as a resource to any manager in communities with significant Hispanic populations. A non-voting corporate membership category was added. "Active members of approved chapters" were added as voting members. IHN currently has no approved chapters, but the organization is working on formalizing chapters in 2017. A "Hermanos" category was added for associate(non-voting) memberships for associations/agencies that are associated with local government. Language was added to require an updated dues addendum to the bylaws each year. Language was clarified for setting annual meeting date at the first IHN board meeting of the year. Board member responsibilities were updated. Term limits were removed. Finally, the process for filling board vacancies was updated.
