Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities

USTelecom is the nation's leading trade association representing broadband service providers and suppliers. Our diverse member base ranges from large publicly traded communications corporations to small companies and cooperatives - all providing advanced communications services to markets both urban and rural. Previously known as the United States Telephone Association, we serve as the go-to source for broadband news and industry events.

| Form 990,Part VI,Section B,line 12c | We require Board members and senior staff to attest in writing each year that they are in conformance with our conflict of interest policy. Further, our Employee Handbook contains our conflict of interest policy and all staff must sign an acknowledgement that they have received, read and understand the material contained in the Employee Handbook and will abide by its guidance. With respect to any potential conflict of interest involving a member of the Board of Directors or the President and Chief Executive Officer, the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors will determine whether or not a conflict of interest exists, and whether or not such conflict materially and adversely affects the interests of USTelecom. A Covered Official whose potential conflict is under review may not debate, vote, or otherwise participate in such determination. If the Board of Directors determines that an actual or potential conflict of interest does exist, the Board shall also determine an appropriate remedy. Such remedy may include, for example, the recusal of the conflicted Covered Official from participating in certain matters pending before the Board or other USTelecom body. Only disinterested members of the Executive Committee may participate in any review. The Executive Committee shall inform the Board of its determination and recommended action. The Board shall retain the right to modify or reverse such determination and action, and shall retain the ultimate enforcement authority with respect to the interpretation and application of this policy. With respect to any potential conflict of interest involving key employees, the President and CEO of USTelecom with appropriate consultation, shall determine whether such conflict exists and what is the appropriate remedy and shall exercise its authority with respect to the review of that decision or may refer it to the full Board of Directors. |

| Form 990,Part VI,Section B,line 15 | Compensation of the President &amp; CEO is set through a process of the executive committee of the board which includes establishment of annual goals and assessment of their achievement. The President &amp; CEO operates under the authorized employment contract of the executive committee of the Board. Compensation of staff has previously been reviewed by an independent consulting process, which included market comparability studies based on position requirements at similarly situated organizations. Annual increases and bonuses are based on performance against Board approved goals and are determined by an internal compensation committee that is comprised of members of the senior staff (No internal committee member participates in his/her own compensation discussion). |
