990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Finance Committee, which is composed of three independent individuals, calculates the annual salaries. Any increase or decrease to those salaries between Conventions is considered by the Finance Committee, provided that any increase in annual salaries shall not exceed the percentage increase, if any, in the Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers, U.S. City Average, All Items, (1982-1984 = 100), also referred to as the "CPI-W," during the twelve month period from September of the prior year to September of the current year. Any such increase is also subject to a maximum of 4% per year. The Finance Committee makes a recommendation to the General Executive Board, which makes the final decision. In addition, if salary inequities or other facts or circumstances arise that may warrant a further modification, other than the one described above, the Finance Committee may make a recommendation with respect to such additional adjustment and the General Executive Board may make such additional modifications in salaries provided that such modifications are economically feasible.
