Return Reference	Explanation
PART I, LINE 2	Every proposed grant organization shall be vetted by the Committee to ensure basic and reasonable due diligence. The vetting process for grants over $10,000 USD should include (1) Review financial statements of organization and (2) Endorsement from a trusted third party. For non-profit, nongovernmental organizations/institutions based outside of the United States, Your organization/institution is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational or other exempt purposes and meets the below standards. It is operated exclusively for specified charitable purposes. Its country's laws and customs, or its governing documents, do not permit substantial non-charitable activities or lobbying. Either its country's laws and customs, or the organization's governing documents, prohibit any direct or indirect intervention in a political campaign. Its country's laws and customs, or the organization's governing documents, do not permit any of its assets or income to benefit a private person. Its assets will be distributed on dissolution to another non-profit organization for charitable or other exempt purposes or to a government instrumentality. Failure to demonstrate compliance with the non-profit organization standards stated above may result in revocation of grant funds. Included in agreement form signed by grant recipients. You are required to provide the Foundation with a written report summarizing the program/project promptly following the end of the period during which you are to use all grant funds. Your report should describe how you achieved the purpose of the grant and include a detailed accounting of the uses or expenditure of all grant funds. It is recommended to provide photos or videos of the funded program/project. You also agree to provide any other information reasonably requested by the Foundation. If your organization obtains any audited financial statements covering any part of the period of this grant, please provide a copy to the Foundation as well. You are required to keep the financial records with respect to this grant, along with copies of any reports submitted to the Foundation, for at least four years following the year in which all grant funds are fully expended.
