Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	CJJC re-grants funds to organizations that are named as partners on primarily government contract awards. The award agency generally approves the partner through the contract process, and these partners then invoice CJJC for their portion of funds as determined by the original contract agreement or an MOU between CJJC and the partner organization. Partners must meet pre-approved deliverables outlined in the contract or grant. CJJC asks recipients of community support grants to submit a brief report about how funds were used and the outcomes of funded activities.
