Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Older Americans Act Program - The older Americans Act Program provides vital services that allow vulnerable seniors to remain in their homes, thereby avoiding unnecessary or premature nursing home placement. Services funded under this program include our elder helpline, where we provide seniors and their caregivers with vital information and assist them in obtaining such critical services as in-home health care and adult day care, and guidance in planning for the changing needs of older loved ones, legal assistance, which is provided to elders who are victims of scams, fraud, and other types of abuse or facing the threat of eviction, foreclosure or bankruptcy, and nutrition services, where balanced meals are provided, either in the home or at congregate dining sites so isolated seniors can benefit from socialization along with a good meal and respite services for caregivers, so caregivers can take a much-needed break from their continuous task of caring for a frail, older loved one. Additional services provided under this program include health and wellness education, including courses in chronic disease and diabetes self-management, homemaker and companion services, personal care for elders with limited capacity to tend to their activities of daily living, and elder abuse prevention, where not only elders are alerted to and educated about their risk of abuse, but business professionals and community members are also trained to identify potential victims of abuse.
