Form 990 (2016)

Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☐1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

Provides emergency food relief to the hungry in North Brevard. Food given out is balanced to provide good nutrition to the individual or family receiving assistance. In conjunction with this we provide some personal hygiene products. Normally assistance is provided every three months and we do extra assistance for Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas. There is never a charge for any products or services provided.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 472,260 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

The sole program and fundamental purpose of the organization is helping the needy of North Brevard. Providing food is top priority of the organization. Cor Jesu collects, purchases, sorts, packages and distributes food to the needy at its location on S. Hopkins. In 2016, 2,059 households consisting of 4,676 individuals received food assistance. Most of the food consisted of non-perishable content of canned and boxed items. This year we started, twice a week, receiving large amounts of food from a pair of local grocery stores. Items received from the grocery stores included fresh fruit and vegetables, breads, bakery items, meats/fish as well as non-perishable items. Additional meats, when needed, were purchased from the local food bank. Eggs and butter purchased locally are also provided. The additional food that was received allowed us to increase both the quantity and quality of food distributed to clients this year and is reflected in value of donations and cost of food distributed. Hygiene products are also provided when available. Volunteers pickup and collect food, others sort and stock the shelves, while others register new clients and assemble the bags that are given away. Each client receives several bags of food. All of our funds are used to purchase food, except for small amounts for utilities and to maintain the building.

There is a written manual with attached copies of various forms that need to be completed before assistance can be rendered. New Clients complete an application which asks for name, address, phone #, number of children in home and information on client income and expenses. All new clients are interviewed to confirm information is complete.

Client must provide photo ID cards and social security card for each person that will be receiving food. Eligibility is determined by comparing the information with current government guidelines. Copies of ID and social security cards are attached to application. Food assistance is available every three months. On future visits the information is checked to see if there are any changes and the visits logged with client signing statement that they received assistance during the visit. A different volunteer will distribute the food to the client. We communicate regularly with other local charities and share information with them on what clients are served and they respond in kind.

Non-cash donations are food items or personal hygiene supplies. During the holidays we do receive some toys for children. Food products are our major source of donations. Donations are received:

- 1) Food is brought to our facility;
- 2) Two major food drives during the year, the Boy Scouts and the Postal Service;
- 3) Some churches regularly collect food and bring it to us, others have periodic drives and also bring food to us.
- 4) Schools, clubs and other organizations periodically collect food or have food drives;
- 5) A couple of grocery stores provide us large amounts of food twice weekly (this is the first year);

Value of food products is determined by matching typical assortment and quantity of food received and pricing it periodically at local food markets. Food is packaged to provide a balanced diet and is based on the number of members in the family or other unit being fed.

Perishable items are received twice weekly from local supermarkets or purchased at a reasonably price at Second Harvest Food Bank.

Eggs and butter are purchased locally to add to the assortment. Most donated items are boxed or canned. We do have several refrigerators and freezers to store the increasing amount of perishable items. Inventory turns over quickly.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b. Monthly reports of services are prepared by the Pantry Manager or Asst. Pantry Manager are filed with the Secretary for review and archiving. The monthly totals are added to the annual report of services provided. The report includes names of clients, date of client's last visit, number of members in client's household and number of bags distributed. This makes up most of the data for services provided and allows tracking of food distributions. Individual registration and sign-in cards are kept onsite at the Pantry facility. The summarized reports are available to all trustees. This information along with the financial reports are used to prepare the annual 990 return and associated schedules. This is normally reviewed by the Treasurer and copies of the returns are made available to all Trustees and a copy is kept at the pantry office.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19. Copies of the tax filings are kept at the Food Pantry Office and are available upon request for review. Schedules that contain names and addresses of donors (if applicable) are not made available for public inspection. A copy of the governing documents is also available for review upon request. Year end statements would be available if requested. No conflict of interest policy has been adopted so no policy statement is available. This has never been an issue. At this time we do not have a website but would like to have one in the future to make information about the pantry available as well as online access to various documents.
