Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Coastal Conservation Association believes that all significant tax positions utilized by CCA will more likely than not be sustained upon examination. As of December 31, 2016, the tax years that remain subject to examination by the major tax jurisdictions under the statute of limitations are from the year 2013 forward (with limited exceptions). Tax penalties and interest, if any, would be accrued as incurred and would be classified as general and administrative expense in the combined statement of activities.

Part I, Line 2	Coastal Conservation Association has a Scholarship Committee that monitors scholarships. The scholarship candidates are recommended to the Scholarship Committee by the educational institution. The Scholarship Committee reviews the merits and field of study for all candidates and approves those who meet their requirements. After approving the candidates for selection, the Scholarship Committee makes a recommendation to the Board to fund the scholarships for candidates. By way of vote, the Board either approves or denies the scholarship funding. After the Board approves the scholarships funding, funds are disbursed directly to the appropriate educational institution to cover the educational expenses of the scholarship winner.
