The Jack Mayfield House Transitional Living Program provides up to 6 months of housing, food, clothing, education and health care for men who have graduated from the DoorWay Drug/Alcohol Recovery Program. The men who qualify for this aftercare housing must be graduates of the DoorWay Program and employed. These men have available to them food, shelter, clothing, and access to social services for this period of time. These men continue recovery group participation, counseling and an opportunity to help men still in the recovery program. The men living in this house pay rent of $100 per week to the Mission.

Open Door Mission's DoorWay Drug and Alcohol Recovery Program employs a multi-level treatment approach to drug and alcohol recovery. It's an intensive, 7 to 13-month, Christ-centered program designed to help men overcome drug and alcohol addictions. When men enter the program, they are involved in a comprehensive curriculum of evidence based programming, self-discovery, life-skills, and spiritual renewal, Bible study and employment. They also participate actively in mentoring, counseling, and 12-step work.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Program Service Accomplishments

EDUCATION - Open Door Mission requires all men in the DoorWay Program to complete a minimum of 5 - 10 hours of academic education each week during their stay in computer based instruction to become computer literate, ready for additional academic and technical education or employment.

Clients are given an educational assessment early in their stay to identify their personal educational grade equivalency level and a customized academic curriculum, with emphasis on their weaknesses, is created for their improvement based on their personal performance. This computerized program is self-paced and available to clients for daily preparation for regular evaluations of their progress. In order to begin to function in our computer based society, computer literacy is required, including typing and functional use of the Microsoft Office software (Office, Word and Excel), most commonly used in job placement opportunities. Mission volunteers provide additional support as tutors for clients who need one-on-one drill and instruction to achieve academic progress.

The Mission's Education and Technology Center is an officially recommended provider of the GED programming by the University of Houston and Houston Community College. The GED program is also available free of charge to community students. Additionally, we are members of the Houston Center for Literacy, which provides training in the latest methods in adult education.
