Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Equality Federation is the movement builder and strategic partner to state-based organizations advocating for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer (LGBTQ) people. We believe change is possible in every community. We promote change through our two major program areas - advocacy and leadership. In our advocacy program we partner with leaders on the ground to fend off attacks on our community and advance protections for LGBTQ people in state legislatures, where hundreds of bills affecting our community are introduced every year. CONTINUED ON SCHEDULE ODuring 2016 we provided state groups access to the EFI Nondiscrimination Model and the State Voices VAN, created smarter strategy around passage of nondiscrimination laws that takes into account the challenges of this work, produced, distributed, and presented various reports to multiple stakeholders within and outside the LGBTQ movement regarding nondiscrimination strategy and laws, offered training in newest nondiscrimination messaging, including attacks on transgender people and "bathroom bills, implemented legislative tracking system using BillTrack50, consistently monitor LGBTQ legislation in all 50 states. In our leadership program we ensure that state equality groups build power by training strong, resilient, and adaptive leaders in sustainable organizations. During 2016, we Convened more than 200 state and national movement leaders for peer-learning, training, strategic thinking, and networking at our annual leadership conference. We convened over 50 State LGBTQ leaders for our Southern Leadership Summit (Mar/Apr) and Midwest Leadership Summit (Nov/Dec) with strong participation from states in region. We provided tailored on-site organizational development services in 8 states, at least four of which were in the Southern region. We also conducted our annual Executive Director Boot Camp for the newest leaders in our movement.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The conflict of interest policy covers all members of the Board of Directors, the Executive Director, and independent contractors who perform significant work for the organization. Upon notification of a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest, the chair shall advise the full board and the Executive Director. After review, the board will determine whether the disclosure of the conflict protects the integrity of the Board's decision-making. The Board may: A. Determine by majority vote that the party in conflict shall be allowed to participate in all deliberations directly relating to the actual or potential conflict, but, if a voting member, require that he/she shall recuse him/herself from any vote on the matter; or B. Determine that the party in conflict shall not take part in any of the deliberations or votes of the board involving the question concerning which the conflict arises, nor attempt to influence other directors in reaching a decision on that question. The minutes of the meeting in which the question was before the board shall disclose the recusal. The Director shall not be counted as being present for a quorum in connection with that question. In the event that the party in conflict disputes the Board's resolution of the conflict of interest question, any approval or limitation of his or her participation shall require a two-thirds vote of those voting members present.
