What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
The social club is organized for the sole purpose of furthering the knowledge of its members through an educational conference to be held on at least an annual basis. The conference will be held generally in May each year beginning in 2016, and it will be located in Estes Park, Colorado. The conference will bring members together to collaborate on new ideas for the advancement of technology. It will also provide opportunities for education of the members through lectures by industry experts.
