In 2016 the board of trustees decided to open up scholarships to students who wish to attend colleges and universities not located in the state of New Mexico. In years prior to 2016 the recipient was required to attend a New Mexico college or university. The foundation's Declaration of Trust did not have a restriction that the recipient attend a New Mexico institution so no amendment was necessary, but the Foundation's originally filed Form 1023 Application for Recognition of Exemption indicated that funds would only be for use in seeking a degree from an accredited in state college or university. We feel opening up scholarships to students who wish to pursue their education at in state or out of state universities and colleges will allow us to provide more scholarships and better serve our community.
