Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Social Groups for Children, Teens and Adults - For over 25 years, this agency has been making it possible for individuals with special needs to get together in social settings. Events take place out in the community, at the Zoo or group bowling, or at one of the homes owned by the agency for music and stories, cooking and games. Special events include a monthly Simchat Shabbat or religious service that is designed for individuals with special needs, an annual Special Needs Community Model Seder, and a Special Needs Dance for Adults.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Special Education Programs & Resources - Ensuring students have a proper education, both secular and Jewish, is a founding principle of the agency. Trainings on the topics of disability, special needs and learning differently are offered to teachers and aides in the Jewish pre-schools, religious schools and day schools, which are all private schools. Independent observations for students who may be facing challenges are available at a small fee. Inclusion accommodations are discussed and recommended where appropriate for the classrooms. Resource teacher is available at a fee to help throughout the school year for students who have been identified by the school district as having a learning challenge. In 2016, grants were received in order to purchase a computer software program for students 1st thru 6th grades. In 3 months of use, student knowledge of new words increased 80%.
