29 Our program to increase philanthropy educates donors about local needs and provides services to facilitate philanthropy. Over 18,000 households received our annual newsletter. We provide an online Directory of Nonprofits, run Op-Eds in the newspapers and offer intermediary services to donors. In 2016 we launched a new website and Directory of Nonprofits which allows the directory to be more current. We also convened the first ever forum of Vineyard Funders (local foundations and off-island private foundations that fund nonprofits on Martha's Vineyard) to explore ways they might work together to increase nonprofit capacity building, increase collaboration between nonprofits and address major community issues. The attendees were energized by the prospect of working together and agreed to meet again in 2017.
