Schedule C, Part I-A	Description of the organization's indirect political campaign activities as one of the state's largest safety net provider networks, providing and expanding access to health care for the underserved is a core part of our mission. Participation in every facet of the public policy process is a natural extension of our efforts. We believe it is both our role and our responsibility to invest in expanding access to health care and health insurance for populations that are very vulnerable and typically have no voice. Therefore, we financially support the campaigns of the policy makers that have prioritized health care access for everyone in Washington State.
